

2026-27 1ère BFI English Language & Literature

2026-27 1ère BFI English Language & Literature

Non-Fiction Reading Comprehension & Reflection Questions:
Shakespeare on Toast* by Ben Crystal

1. What do you think Crystal's overall purpose is? Why?
2. How would you describe Crystal's tone and writing style? Explain using evidence from the text.
3. Why is "determining the 'authentic' text of Hamlet" so complicated?
4. In what ways does Crystal consider Shakespeare's use of iambic pentameter to be "metrical genius"?
5. How did the theatre-going public in Shakespeare's England differ from modern audiences?

2026-27 1ère BFI English Language & Literature

6. How does Crystal use contemporary analogies (such as comparing Shakespeare to modern musicians) to explain Shakespeare's literary impact? Do you find these comparisons effective? Explain.

7. Crystal suggests that Shakespeare's plays endure because they "explore what it is to be human." What examples from Hamlet does he use to demonstrate this idea?

8. After reading Shakespeare on Toast, to what extent has your view of Shakespeare's writing changed? Explain.